

I do not think New Jersey's "Do Not Call" law should be overturned by the FCC. I don't pay $60 a month for phone services in order to enable telemarketers access to my home. I have a right to say who disturbs me in my home and who doesn't -- and the federal law is not as effective as New Jersey's in protecting my right.